Location: Great Mall of the Bay Area

Case: 10-162-003

Suspect: Douglas Carl Wiley, 39-year-old male, (transient)

On June 10, 2010 (Thursday), between 9:05 pm and 11:35 pm, an unknown suspect cut the tarp covering a closed kiosk at the Great Mall of the Bay Area (GMBA) and stole money. GMBA security personnel and Milpitas Police Department personnel reviewed the surveillance footage and discovered the suspect was captured on video.

On June 12, 2010 (Saturday), at about 8:00 am, GMBA security reported the tarp over the closed kiosk had been cut again and provided a description of the suspect who had just left the area. Based on the description provided by the security personnel, Officer Stephen Parodi stopped Douglas Wiley walking away from the GMBA. Officers investigated the incidents and concluded Wiley was responsible for both incidents. Douglas Wiley was booked at the Santa Clara County main jail for burglary and vandalism.
