PRESS RELEASE

2010 State Property Officer of the Year

On May 12th, 2010, the California Association for Property and Evidence (C.A.P.E.) awarded Milpitas Property Clerk Deborah Souza with the prestigious “2010 State Property Officer of the Year” award. C.A.P.E. is comprised of over 400 members from throughout California who are current law enforcement personnel involved in the daily responsibility of managing the property and evidence functions of their respective law enforcement agencies. This particular award is given to an individual who has excelled in multiple areas of training, teaching, longevity and service in the field of Property and Evidence.

Deborah Souza has been the Milpitas Property Clerk and a member of C.A.P.E. since 1990. She consistently keeps current with techniques regarding evidence collection, booking and technology. Deborah has become known as one of the most knowledgeable Property and Evidence professionals within California.

On May 12th, 2010, Deborah Souza was presented with the award at a statewide C.A.P.E. luncheon held in Rancho Mirage, California.
