Suspect - David Curtis Ramirez Galvan

On March 31, 2011, at approximately 3:28 p.m., Milpitas police officers saw a suspicious person, carrying a large plastic bag, walking in a residential area known as "The Pines". The officers followed the subject and noticed him rummaging through the bag pulling miscellaneous jewelry from it. The officers detained the subject due to recent residential burglaries, which had occurred throughout the city involving the theft of jewelry. Shortly thereafter, the Milpitas Police Department received an activated residential burglary alarm in the 1100 bk. of Stardust Way, which was located a short distance away. Officers responded to the alarm and noticed the house had recently been burglarized. Further investigation revealed the property in the subject's bag was linked to the residence.

The suspect was identified as David Curtis Ramirez Galvan, a 19 year-old San Jose resident. Galvan was booked into the Santa Clara County Main Jail for burglary, possession of stolen property and grand theft.
