PRESS RELEASE

Commercial Burglar Arrested

Date: July 31, 2011, Sunday, 0406 A.M.
Location: 1800 (B) McCarthy Blvd.
Case: 11-212-038
Suspect #1: Bryan Edward Boyle, WMA, 24-year-old Antioch resident.
Suspect Vehicle: White, 2004, 2DR, Ford, Mustang

On 07/31/11, at 0406 hr., Milpitas Police officers responded to the business on a report of an alarm sounding. Officers responded to the scene, set a perimeter around the business and found a suspect, later identified as being Boyle, walking around the vacant business holding a bolt cutter. Officers tried to contact Boyle but he fled on foot. Officers lost Boyle during the foot chase but later located him hiding nearby. Officers discovered Boyle was also in possession of other burglary tools. Officers located Boyle's vehicle nearby and found that the vehicle contained numerous cut copper pipes. The investigation revealed Boyle entered the locked building and began stealing copper piping from the business.

Boyle was booked into the County Jail for burglary, possession of burglary tools, resisting arrest, prowling and possession of stolen property.
