COMMERCIAL BURGLARY SUSPECTS ARRESTED

Date: July 29, 2012, 8:34 P.M.
Location: 345 Los Coches Street
Case: 12-211-174
Suspect #1: Kevin Hawkins, 32-year-old, San Jose resident
Suspect #2: Aaron Cameron, 32-year-old, San Jose resident

On July 29, 2012 at 8:34 P.M., Milpitas police officers responded to a commercial building for an activated burglary alarm. Officers arrived within three minutes, established a perimeter around the business and saw Kevin Hawkins exiting an enclosed area through a hole in the fence. Kevin Hawkins was taken into custody without incident. Officers also observed Aaron Cameron on the roof of the business. He attempted to flee by sliding down a pole attached to the outside of the building, but was apprehended by awaiting officers.

Burglary tools recovered at the scene included pipe wrenches, a hack saw, bolt cutters and a battery powered screwdriver. These types of tools are commonly used to cut copper wiring and remove recyclable metals from commercial buildings.

Milpitas Police Officers determined Hawkins was on probation for narcotics violations and Cameron was on parole for theft.

Kevin Hawkins and Aaron Cameron were both booked into the Santa Clara County jail for burglary and conspiracy.
