On September 8, 2102, at approximately 2:13 a.m., Milpitas Police Department officers responded to 7-Eleven at 1496 N. Milpitas Blvd. and found the victim, an employee, with a fatal gunshot wound. Detectives responded to the scene and determined the homicide occurred during the commission of a robbery.

After several months of intense investigation, along with the assistance of neighboring law enforcement agencies, detectives identified Jerry Coneal, Warner Travis, Delmon Armstead, and Bianca Barrow as the involved suspects. All four suspects have been charged with murder and second degree robbery. Jerry Coneal is currently in custody in San Mateo County for an unrelated offense. The remaining three suspects were booked into the Santa Clara County Main Jail.

The Milpitas Police Department is still actively investigating this homicide and looking for anyone who may have information related to this case or related to the victim's necklace & pendant with his name in Farsi, which is unaccounted for (please see attached picture). Anyone with any information regarding this case is encouraged to call the Milpitas Police Department at (408) 586-2400.
