PRESS RELEASE

The Flame of Hope: Special Olympics Torch Run

Date: June 20, 2013

Details:

On June 20th, 2013, members of the Milpitas Police Department participated in the Special Olympics Torch Run as it made its way into the City of Milpitas. The participants received the torch from the California Highway Patrol at the intersection of Montague Expressway and Main Street. The runners, including members from the Santa Clara County Sheriff's Office and from the Milpitas Police Department as well as a Special Olympic participant, arrived at the Milpitas Police Department with the Special Olympics torch and participated in a celebration ceremony. Milpitas Police Chief Steve Pangelinan officially handed the torch off to the Newark Police Department to continue its journey to the 2013 Special Olympic Games in Davis, Ca.

The Special Olympics offers persons with developmental disabilities in Northern California the opportunity to participate in the summer games, which is made possible by support from volunteers, community members and law enforcement agencies.
