

Steve Pangelinan
Chief of Police

PRESS RELEASE

P.A.C.E.S. Training Offered

Date: August 23, 2016

Location: Milpitas Police Department

Details:

Have you ever wondered how the men and women of law enforcement are trained to do their job? How a police department operates? Why do police officers wear all that “stuff” on their belt? All these questions and more will be answered during the Milpitas Police Department’s Police and Community Education Seminar, better known as P.A.C.E.S.

P.A.C.E.S. is a free 6-week course that is taught on consecutive Monday nights, between 6:00 p.m. and 9:00 p.m., starting September 12, 2016. Through a series of lectures and staged scenarios, citizens will be provided with hands-on training similar to the actual police academy. Courses will range from Crime Scene Investigation (CSI), Canine Program, “Run, Hide, Fight” Philosophy, DUI Detection and other topics of interest.

If you want to learn more about your community and your local police department, sign up today-
-space is limited.

Contact: Sergeant Bryan Hinkley at (408) 586-2527

By: Sergeant Bryan Hinkley

Date: August 23, 2016, 12:00 p.m.