

Did you know?

Effective January 1, 2014

The State of California

Will be requiring residential buildings undergoing permitted alterations, additions or improvements to replace noncompliant plumbing fixtures with water conserving plumbing fixtures.

For more information please visit CALGreen 2013 Summaries:

Residential

Non-Residential