What can I do to ensure that my child and our family will have a positive and safe experience using family child care?

- ★ Learn how to select quality child care – what to look for and what questions to ask.
- ★ After asking basic questions by phone, visit several homes to observe the interactions and physical environments.
- ★ Check the provider's licensing history by calling the Department of Social Services Community Care Licensing San Jose Regional Child Care Office at (408) 324-2148. Ask for a "file review".
- ★ Ask the provider for parent references. Call the referrals and ask a variety of questions.
- ★ Ask questions and discuss your concerns and child rearing philosophies with the provider during your visit and after starting in care. If you have serious concerns about the home to which the provider is not responsive, call the Department of Social Services Community Care Licensing San Jose Regional Child Care Office at (408) 324-2148 and make a report.
- ★ Begin early and maintain a mutually respectful, business relationship with the provider, including having a contract describing services, vacation, sick child, late pick-up, payment and other policies.
- ★ Continue to monitor your care arrangement by taking time to observe and ask questions when you drop off or pick up your child, or request to speak with the provider at a more convenient time. Feel free to stop by unannounced during the day to visit.
