

The Milpitas Public Library is a resource-rich landmark and a premier Midtown destination. It's your "community living room" built to inspire learning and improve information access for everyone.

Your library features:

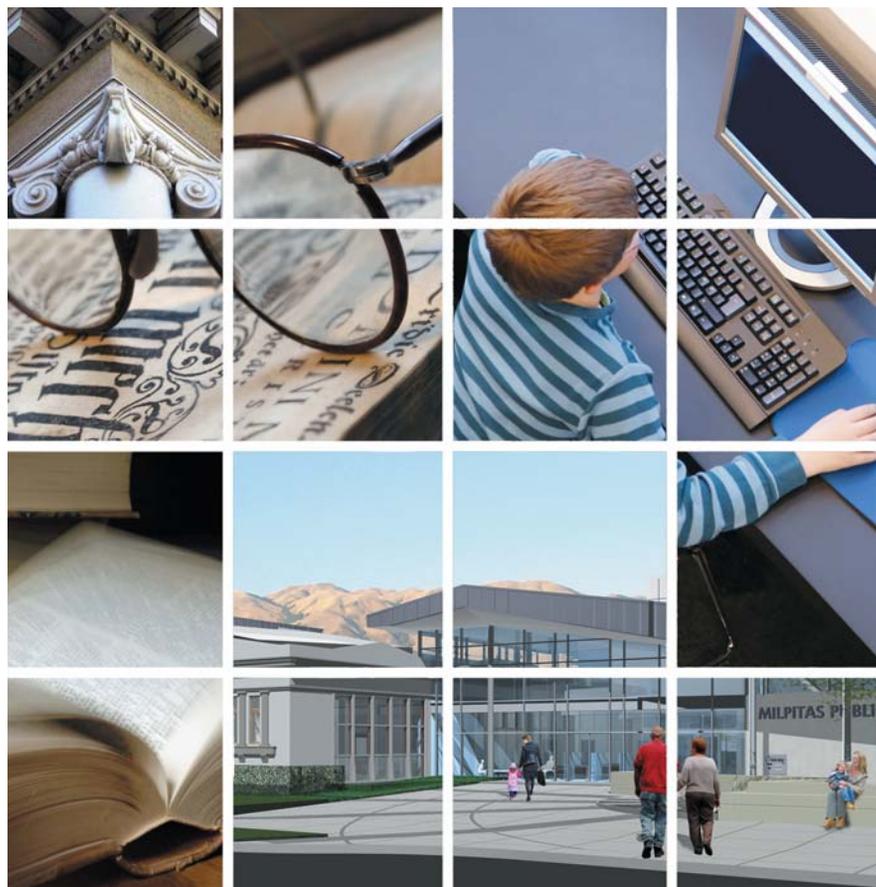

- Historic Milpitas Grammar School integrated into a modern design
- Josephine Guerrero Children's Activity Room
- Ed Cavallini Tower
- Robert Keely Reading Area
- Cesar Chavez Reading Area
- Martin Luther King Jr. Academic & Career Center
- "Teenopolis" for young adults

Your donation directly supports patron benefits:

- Increasing literary awareness
- Promoting cultural and historical interests
- Raising awareness of the arts
- Expanding the collection
- Purchasing equipment and materials

Your donation supports Milpitas Public Library programs:

- Preschool literacy
- Summer reading programs
- Story times and puppet shows
- Author visits and book discussion groups
- Music and craft programs
- Poetry slams and movies

Monetary donations to the Milpitas Public Library open doors for patrons and offer specific, lasting meaning to you, the benefactor.

Please contact the City of Milpitas Library Advisory Commission Chair, or go to www.ci.milpitas.ca.gov/citygov/commissions/library for a simple form. Donors may designate contributions for a specific use or request that an appropriate use be selected by the Library Advisory Commission.

All financial donations shall be applied to purchases and events directly supporting the needs of the Milpitas Public Library.

Suggested ways that individuals, businesses, civic groups and foundations may contribute funds:

- Memorial Donations: You may contribute in memory of a family member or friend who has passed away. Individuals may also name the City of Milpitas, Milpitas Public Library Fund as a beneficiary in their wills.
- Specified Use: You or your organization may request that donations be used for the purchase of materials for the collection, support a special event or display in the library, or for furnishings and equipment subject to the needs of the library.
- Undesignated Use: Contributions not earmarked for a specific purpose shall be assigned to purchases according to the library's needs.

Milpitas Public Library

Your Library...Your Legacy!

