Youth Advisory Committee
Milpitas, CA

Dear Mayor Esteves and Milpitas City Council members,

I am writing this letter to endorse Anthony Vu for Milpitas Youth Advisory committee membership.

I am the Committee Chair for Boy Scouts Troop 170 where Anthony is currently registered as a boy scout. In the past two years, I have had the pleasure of working very closely with him and see him advance to the rank of Life, and on his way to Eagle. I find him to be very kind, pleasant, easy to get along with, and always with "can do" attitude. He is especially good in working with younger scouts, and very supportive and gentle in giving them guidance and coaching. He is always willing to help with whatever is needed, and often the first one to volunteer.

I believe Anthony has the right background and skills for this position, and he will be an asset to the Youth Advisory Committee. I strongly recommend him for this position.

Should you have any further questions, please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

Najeeb Khawaja

Dear Milpitas Youth Advisory Commission,
It is my pleasure to recommend Anthony Vu for appointment to the Milpitas Youth Advisory Commission .
I am the Scoutmaster for Anthony's Boy scout troop.
I came to know Anthony when my two sons joined Troop 170.
I have since become Scoutmaster and have watched Anthony grow and mature.

Anthony has distinguished himself by leading our Troop by example and mentoring the younger boys.
He has excellent leadership qualities, and has demonstrated them by working with the younger scouts this past week at summer camp. He is a hard and dedicated worker and has constantly demonstrated good people and teamwork skills. He is a great role model and I feel would make a great addition to your group.

Yours sincerely,

Craig Stauffer , Scoutmaster Troop 170 BSA

List of Organizations

Boy Scouts of America [B.S.A.]<sup>1</sup>

Purpose: "The mission of the Boy Scouts of America is to prepare young people to make ethical and moral choices over their lifetimes by instilling in them the values of the Scout Oath and Law." – Current Mission Statement of the Boy Scouts of America

Description: The overall aim or objective of the Boy Scouts of America is to develop character in boys that join the organization, enable and teach the scouts to make independent choices in life, and above all be helpful to other people through the scout method. It is only then that the scouts become as described by Robert Baden-Powell<sup>2</sup> "healthy, happy, helpful citizens." This improvement of the scouts is learned through challenging outdoor activities provided by the adult leaders of the troop. These activities require the scouts to cooperate with each other and thought to solve. In addition, the scout also improves their outdoor skills as BSA is very outdoorsmen-focused. There is a multitude of benefits that is offered in the Boy Scouts of America.

I believe that I possess many of the necessary qualifications for serving on the Youth Advisory Commission. For one, I am a team player who loves team projects and working with others. My role in the education committee of Fremont Gurdawara Sahib has allowed me to develop into such a person because of the several events, camps, and programs (e.g. summer camp for youth, SAT training, special guests/speakers, and more) that I have helped organize with the other members. Secondly, I believe that I have an excellent understanding of how a committee works due to my adequate competency. I have recently started a non profit organization called Books for Success (please visit booksforsuccess.org for more info) that strives to promote literacy and help toward changing disadvantaged communities. This experience has in itself provided me with knowledge of how things work in an organization/committee and demonstrates my commitment to community service. Lastly, I have developed discipline and a good work ethic through the Early College program that I attend. All of these experiences and roles have helped me become a more community oriented and hard working person. That is why I believe that appointing me to a spot on the Youth Advisory committee would perpetuate the committee's prior success.
