1. What type of difference do you want to make for the youth in our community? (Please list two of your ideas. Please use the reverse side if you need more room.)

I wish to reduce the use of drugs and cigarettes in youths (as I see it quite often near my school) and also increase art venues for teens (since many of my classmates are highly artistic yet have no way to sell or show their pieces).

2. How did you hear about the Youth Advisory Commission?

Two of my siblings were members of the commission, so I learned of it from them.

3. What have you heard or know about the Youth Advisory Commission?

The Youth Advisory Commission proposes and votes upon measures related to teens and also leads committees related to the measures. They also put on the Talent Show each year.

4. Have you ever attended a Youth Advisory Commission meeting? If so, explain your experience.

No; unfortunately I have not attended a meeting.

The differences I want to make in the community all have to do with how involved they are with local activities. There needs to be a larger emphasis on community organizing and some ways we could do that are by expanding on events we have already like Milpitas Got Talent, and making youth facilities more available and accessible, like the Teen Center.

2. How did you hear about the Youth Advisory Commission?

Sam mentioned the Commission and recommended I join when we were working together organizing after.

3. What have you heard or know about the Youth Advisory Commission?

The YAC organizes youth-centric events and works in conjunction with many facilities that attract kids and teens. They basically serve as the proxy through which the local government interacts with kids.

4. Have you ever attended a Youth Advisory Commission meeting? If so, explain your experience.

I have not yet attended a meeting.

Honorable Mayor Esteves,

My name is Aneesh Lodhavia. I am a seventh grader in Challenger School, and I am very interested in applying for a position in the Youth Advisory Commission.

My parents have been living in Milpitas for twenty years. I have utilized various opportunities and classes available to the youth of Milpitas such as the library, summer programs, PAL soccer, and Rainbow Theater. Each of these activities has provided me with skill, interest, and a lot of fun. I have thoroughly enjoyed each activity that Milpitas has provided for me, and I look forward to joining more. These activities are the very things that bring the youth of Milpitas closer together, and to support these activities can only be beneficial to our youth.

Milpitas, being a small city, is very close knit. I have friends in Milpitas whom I have known since I was a child, and it is truly amazing how all the citizens are so close together. Milpitas is very dear to me, as it has been my home town for my entire life.

I am highly interested in learning about the workings of our city's government. My interest piqued when I accompanied my parent to the planning commission meetings to save funding for the Rainbow Theater and experienced the process first hand. I have attended the meetings and gave a speech to save Rainbow Theater, and I have also asked many people to sign the petition to keep the theater. At that point, I realized that I want to provide my ideas and commitment to help Milpitas' youth.

I would really appreciate a chance to participate in this process at the youth level. I think I have lot of ideas to bring our youth closer together. If I am chosen, I will give my full effort to the youth commission, and do anything in my ability to help.

Sincerely,

Aneesh Lodhavia

Milpitas Youth Advisory Supplemental Questionnaire

1. What type of difference do you want to make for the youth in our community? (Please list two of your ideas. Use the reverse side if you need more room.)

For every community to be a successful place, we need the youth to be very involved. Milpitas, being a small city, is a very close knit community. I have been in Milpitas for my entire life, and it has provided me with wonderful opportunities to excel in sports, theater, and many others. The youth are the future of Milpitas, and I feel strongly that if we can get a commitment from teens and kids, we can grow stronger. For any youth to be functional, we need them to be healthy and fit. For my first idea, we should hold a few seminars or events to introduce eating healthy to kids, or ask a nutritionist to give a lecture about eating right. Yoga classes will help reduce stress, anxiety, and help them focus in their school work. For my second idea, we should hold events that will get kids active in Milpitas by doing community activities such as Milpitas food pantry and attending to our senior citizens. Holding small events such as talent shows and parties for kids would make them feel part of Milpitas. Hosting a Sports Day in a local park or high school with different sports will bring the community together and make a stronger youth. A healthy youth means a healthy future and I feel that these ideas are vital to developing our youth.

2. How did you hear about the Youth Advisory Commission?

When I was little, I went to an Advisory Commission meeting regarding building a Church near Piedmont, where the residents debated whether they need it or not. I didn't know much when I heard it, but my parents did explain to me about it, and that got me into thinking about helping Milpitas to enrich the youth. Although I couldn't join the actual Milpitas Planning Commission, I could still join the Youth Advisory Commission when the time came around.

3. What have you heard or know about the Youth Advisory Commission?

I know that the Youth Advisory Commission is a place to express your ideas and thoughts to help the community, and organize events pertaining especially to the youth.

4. Have you ever attended a Youth Advisory Commission meeting? If so, explain your experience.

I have not attended a Youth Advisory Commission meeting, but I have been part of a Milpitas Planning Commission meeting; a meeting for a petition to keep Rainbow Theater. In the Rainbow Theater meeting, I was very shocked of the sudden decision to close down Rainbow Theater. I went around and gathered signatures to save the Theater, and also attended the meeting in which I gave a short speech of the good things that Rainbow Theater has done for me, and my years in participating in it.

2. Briefly describe the personal qualifications you possess which you believe would be an asset.

Leadership, communication, passion, and experience are some of my qualities that would be beneficial to the Youth Advisory Commission. Focusing on leadership, this ability will allow me to take initiative with new projects and guide them to success. Along with this, I can facilitate the commission discussions and come up with original, but practical, ideas. My communication skills can enhance the commission by providing them with a member who can express her beliefs openly, speak in front of large groups of people, and collaborate with her peers to solve problems. Additionally, I can comprehend my colleagues' ideas and incorporate them into the action plan, thus creating a stronger and more thorough plan.

Next, my passion to serve my community can be an asset to the commission because it will bring out the best qualities in me; my love for Milpitas will fuel the creativity and thoughtfulness that I display in everything that I do. Lastly, the Youth Advisory Commission will benefit from the years of experience that I have working in my school's student council. As a class representative, I attended weekly meetings about school problems, spirit ideas, and fundraising. Then my team would take action by solving the problems, executing the spirit activities, and conducting the fundraisers. This experience can prove valuable to the commission because I can calmly solve problems, come up with creative ideas, raise awareness for events, and conduct fundraisers. I have also gained experience as a member of a Girls For A Change club; here, my team and I worked to reduce bullying in our community by performing an anti-bullying skit at local elementary schools. This experience rewarded me with a plethora of valuable skills such as time management, communication, teamwork, and advertising skills. Additionally, I have developed my public speaking experience as a debater and an instructor for the American Red Cross, and I have enhanced my leadership skills as a member of Girl Scouts and as the co-captain of my school's chess club.

3. What type of difference do you want to make for the youth in our community? (Please list two of your ideas.)

I want the youth in our community to become empowered; I want them to believe in themselves and realize that they have the ability to solve their problems and achieve all their goals. I also want the Milpitas youth to become involved with their community and perform community service. This will give them a chance to show their gratitude to their community and learn many lifelong skills. To make these visions reality, I have come up with two ideas that the commission can put into action for the Milpitas youth. My first idea is to host a workshop about goal-setting, problem solving, time management, leadership skills, positive thinking, and more. There may also be a special session about the academic and extra-curricular requirements to get into a good college, for this will be extremely beneficial for many of the high school students. This workshop will empower the Milpitas youth, thus creating a big difference in our community.

My second idea is to organize fun activities for Milpitas youth who have earned fifty or more hours of community service within a six month period. These activities will be held twice a year at a variety of places like ice skating rinks, rock climbing facilities, bowling alleys, and more! I will collaborate with the specific organizations we are conducting the activities at and work out some group discounts for these events. These activities will accomplish my goal of encouraging the youth to perform community service, and the youth will have lot of fun!

4. How did you hear about the Youth Advisory Commission?

I heard about the Youth Advisory Commission through the Milpitas Post.

5. What have you heard or know about the Youth Advisory Commission?

I know that the Youth Advisory Commission advises the City Council about matters pertaining to Milpitas youth; they want to get the youth involved in our community and provide them with many ways to enjoy life and have fun. Another goal of the commission is to give the youth in our community a voice. Through the commission members, all the youth's problems discussed and solved. Along with this, the youth's opinions are taken into consideration when the commission makes substantial decisions. Lastly, I know that the Youth Advisory Commission organizes fundraisers and hosts events for Milpitas families such as Milpitas Got Talent.

6. Have you ever attended a Youth Advisory Commission meeting? If so, explain your experience.

Yes, I have attended a few Youth Advisory Commission meetings. My experience was extremely enlightening, for I discovered that the commission does so much for our community. Additionally, I was thoroughly impressed by the commission members' devotion to serving their community. The many items on the meeting agendas, like social media and YAC buttons, showed that the commission really tries to make Milpitas a better place to be. After attending the meetings, I want to become a part of the Youth Advisory Commission even more! I have a burning desire to enrich the lives of the Milpitas youth, and I will try my very best to achieve this goal.

I developed useful social skills from helping out my elementary school teachers with their work and tutoring their students in English and math. I am also active in clubs and organizations of Milpitas High School that benefit our society. I speak fluently in Chinese (Mandarin and Cantonese). Lastly, I am very determined in everything I do. Some important, strong skills I have are organization and creativity. I will do my best to be a positive contributor to the youth of our community.

I want the youth in our community to learn to bring positive contribution to society when they grow up. I also want the youth in our community to learn to grow up with self confidence, believing that anything is possible and never stop trying. Uniting the youth with more community activities will create a positive future for our society and our community.

2. How did you hear about the Youth Advisory Commission?

I heard about the Youth Advisory Commission from a couple of my friends who are Youth Commissioners.

3. What have you heard or know about the Youth Advisory Commission?

I know that the Youth Advisory Commission reaches out to the youth of our community by helping and directing different youth activities, such as Milpitas Got Talent. I heard that the Youth Advisory Commission has created a teen center in our city.

4. Have you ever attended a Youth Advisory Commission meeting? If so, explain your experience.

No, I have never attended a Youth Advisory Commission meeting.

1. What type of difference do you want to make for the youth in our community? (Please list two of your ideas. Please use the reverse side if you need more room.)

I would like the youth in our community to be more informed of the opportunities that they can participate in. I believe that with events thrown by Youth Advisory Commission, we can impact the lives of the youth and help them express their individuality. (see back for ideas)

2. How did you hear about the Youth Advisory Commission?

I have two commissioners in my math class that were expressing how much they enjoy being part of the Youth Advisory Commission.

3. What have you heard or know about the Youth Advisory Commission?

I heard that the Youth Advisory Commission is a great way to get involved with the community and develop your skills as a leader.

4. Have you ever attended a Youth Advisory Commission meeting? If so, explain your experience.

I have not attended a Youth Advisory Commission meeting.

College Fair

- Contact different colleges and universities to have booths and inform the youth of the many possibilities that they can sign up to be part of in the future. It is a great way for students to explore the different colleges that they can attend.

Mural

- Find talented artists to design a mural that the youth can help paint. Have the mural show a positive message that the entire city can enjoy.
