

R.A.P.

Recreation Assistance Program

What Is R.A.P.?

R.A.P. is a program Milpitas Recreation Services offers that assists qualifying Milpitas residents to take part in programs who might not be able to afford them. R.A.P. is available to assist youth, teens, adults and seniors.

What Does R.A.P. Do?

Through R.A.P., not only can a child participate in day camp, but a teenager can participate in an art class, a parent can take a ballroom dance class, or a senior citizen can learn how to play the guitar. R.A.P. provides qualifying households up to $250 per year to participate in Recreation Services' programs.

How Can I Help?

Currently, R.A.P. funding is provided by a CDBG (Community Development Block Grants). This funding is limited, which in turn, limits the number of people in the community who can benefit from it. Donations are accepted year-round at the Community Center, Senior Center and Sports Center to increase the amount of funding available for additional participation.

Can I Get R.A.P.?

Recreation Assistance Program (R.A.P.) is on a first come, first serve basis to families and individuals whom meet the HUD (Housing Urban Development) requirements. To receive an application or for more information on the R.A.P. program, call the R.A.P. Coordinator at (408) 586-3228. All information is confidential. Don't miss out on the fun!
