1. Naming SOP – Name Transfer

Background: The Subcommittee presented their draft Naming SOP's to Milpitas City Council on March 15, 2016. The Council asked that language on transferring be added to the SOP's. Staff has brought an updated version of the SOP's to reflect this direction to the Subcommittee for final approval.

Recommendation: Review and approve updated Naming SOP.

IX. New Business

1. 450 Montague Development Streets and Park Naming

Background: The subcommittee is requested to consider recommendation for new street names and new park at a new development entitled “450 Montague.”

Included in the Agenda packet for review are the list of proposed street names from the project Developer and map of development to show street and park location(s).

Recommendation: Consider street names and park name for the “450 Montague” development and make recommendation for final City Council approval.

2. Sal Cracolice Building

Background: At the March 19, 2015 meeting, the Subcommittee requested a discussion item be added to the agenda on reassigning the name of Sal Cracolice from the current facility that is being sold to a non-city entity, to another location.

Recommendation: Discuss alternative locations for the name Sal Cracolice and make recommendation for final City Council approval.

3. Name Suggestion Review

Background: Per the City of Milpitas Streets, Parks and Facilities Naming Standard Operating Procedure, suggestions for naming and renaming are to go through the Naming Subcommittee for review and recommendation for final City Council approval.

Recommendation: Review submitted naming suggestions and take desired action.
