H. OLD BUSINESS

1. Milpitas' Got Talent

The subcommittee provided an update for the commission on the Milpitas' Got Talent show. They reminded the commission to assist with spreading the word about the auditions scheduled for Saturday, April 4 for bands only and Saturday, April 11 for other performers. Chair Sandhu reminded the commission that all commissioner's would be required to work the talent show on Friday, May 1, 2009 and they would discuss job duties at the March meeting.

2. Teen Survey

The subcommittee provided the commission with a copy of the survey with no changes from the commission. After much discussion on the distribution of the survey, the commission decided to do face to face survey's at the Milpitas' Got Talent show event on Friday, May 1.

MOTION to approve the survey and conduct face to face survey's at the Milpitas' Got Talent Show.

M/S: Ng/Shen

Ayes: All

I. NEW BUSINESS

1. Facebook Profile

Deputy City Attorney Bronwen Lacey and Program Coordinator Tiumalu discussed using the Facebook social website to advertise the commission and their events. Staff informed the commission of their concerns of using the social website and possible violations of the Brown Act. Staff then requested the commission to remove the Facebook profile for the commission and will assist in finding other ways to promote the commission and their events.

J. OTHER BUSINESS

1. City Council Liaison Report

2. Staff Report

Program Coordinator Tiumalu announced that the Teen Center would have adjusted hours starting January 5 (Monday-Friday from 2:00-7:00pm). He also reported the Teen Center would held the "Reason 2 Rock" break dancing event on Saturday, January 31 from 7:00-10:00pm at the Milpitas Sports Center and generated over $1,500 for the Teen Center programs.

3. Future Agenda Items

- Milpitas' Got Talent show
- Teen Survey
- Adopt-A-Spot Work Plan
- Month of the Young Child presentation

K. ADJOURNMENT
