They are very grateful of the City’s support of cultural exchanges and they look forward to seeing City of Milpitas officials at the next event!

Open House for New Planning Director, Ned Thomas: The City hosted an open house in welcoming the new Planning Director, Ned Thomas. City Manager Edmonds-Mares and Deputy City Manager McHarris, introduced Mr Thomas to the staff and a light breakfast was enjoyed by everyone!

Police Updates

Jack in the Box Homicide: Please see attached Press Release relating to the Jack in the Box Attempted Homicide. The Press Release was posted to Facebook, Nextdoor, Nixle and the City’s Website.

ICC 15th Annual Banquet: On Saturday, September 8th at 6:00 p.m., Police Chief Armando Corpuz attended the India Community Center’s 15th Annual Banquet – A Starry Night Event located at 525 Los Coches Street.

Conditional Job Offer: On Thursday, September 13th, Police Chief Armando Corpuz gave a conditional job offer to a police applicant. The applicant is currently employed as a paramedic with Rural Metro in Santa Clara County and is a trainer and has been a paramedic for nearly 6 years. Upon successful completion of the testing process, the applicant will attend the Police Academy at the Alameda County Sheriff’s Office beginning October 22nd. If hired, our vacancies will be reduced to five police officer positions.

Hired Communications Dispatcher: Genieline Cristobal completed her testing for the position of Communications Dispatcher and accepted the final job offer with the Milpitas Police Department. Genieline graduated from the three-week Dispatch Academy in April 2018 and is a self-sponsor. Her start date in the Communications Dispatch Center is October 1st which will reduce our dispatcher vacancies to two positions.

Principled Policing Training: The Milpitas Police Department hosted Principled Policing training on Thursday, September 13th and Friday, September 14th from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. in the Police Department Community Room. Twenty-five (25) sworn staff from different Agencies attended the training. The course teaches policing approaches that emphasize respect, listening, neutrality, and trust (Procedural Justice) while addressing the common implicit biases that can be barriers to these approaches (Implicit Bias). Law enforcement can improve trust and relationships between law enforcement agencies and their communities by using these principles to evaluate their policies, procedures and training within their departments. In addition, developing an understanding of these two concepts will enable law enforcement to improve safety and well-being for the public and law enforcement officers alike.
Ismaili Cultural Center: Last week, Lieutenant John Torrez met with volunteers of the Ismaili Cultural Center located at 224 Great Mall Parkway. Lieutenant Torrez gave them tips on how to manage large events safely in regards to traffic flow and parking. He also advised them about recent car burglary crime trends and encouraged them to call 9-1-1 in case of an emergency.

Recruitment Events: The Milpitas Police Department Recruitment Team attended the following events this week actively looking for those interested in applying for police officer and dispatch positions:

Recreation and Community Services Updates:

Milpitas Library:
Santa Clara County Library District (SCCLD)’s 2018 Summer Reading programming—Reading Takes You Everywhere—saw record participation by children, teens and adults. A new county-wide goal was set and surpassed with a first ever community reading goal of 100,000 books. Finally, the Summer Reading Program welcomed the San Francisco 49ers and the Monster Jam motorsport event as sponsors, bringing excitement and a whole new set of fans to SCCLD. Our Milpitas Library saw over a 30% increase in their summer program participation from last summer’s programs.

PRESS RELEASE

ATTEMPT HOMICIDE SUSPECTS ARRESTED

DATE: August 30, 2018
LOCATION: Jack in the Box, 1740 South Main Street, Milpitas
CASE #: 18-242-022
VICTIM: 51 year-old male, Milpitas resident
Suspect #1: Osbaldo Alejandro Cobos, 19 year-old male, San Jose resident
Suspect #2: Jose Ignacio Gonzalez, 20 year-old male, San Jose resident

On August 30, 2018, at approximately 3:30 A.M., Milpitas Police officers responded to the Jack in the Box, located at 1740 South Main Street, for a disturbance and vandalism inside of the restaurant. Upon arrival, officers located a 51 year-old man suffering from a puncture wound to the abdominal area. The man was transported to a hospital with a serious injury requiring medical treatment. Officers were able to locate several witnesses and evidence at the scene, which assisted with the identification of the suspect(s). Within several hours, Milpitas Police detectives were able to identify Osbaldo Alejandro Cobos and Jose Ignacio Gonzalez, both San Jose residents, as the suspects involved in the attack. Detectives were able to obtain two no bail Ramey warrants for both Osbaldo Alejandro Cobos and Jose Ignacio Gonzalez for attempted homicide.

On Friday, August 31, 2018, at approximately 9:30 P.M., detectives observed Jose Ignacio Gonzalez leaving his home and took him into custody, without incident, in the City of San Jose. He was then booked into the Santa Clara County Jail for the Ramey warrant. On September 4, 2018, at approximately 8:50 P.M., Milpitas Police detectives, with assistance from the Santa Clara County Regional Auto Theft Task Force and the San Jose Police Department, located Osbaldo Alejandro Cobos at his home and took him into custody after he initially tried to flee. Osbaldo Alejandro Cobos was also booked into the Santa Clara County Jail for the Ramey warrant, vandalism, and resisting arrest.

If you have any information regarding this investigation; then you are encouraged to call the Milpitas Police Department at (408) 586-2400. Additionally, the information can be given anonymously by calling the Crime Tip Hotline at (408) 586-2500 or via the Milpitas Police Department website at: http://www.ci.milpitas.ca.gov/crimetip
