5. SPOUSAL CONSENT

SPOUSAL CONSENT APPLIES TO 401 PLANS ONLY OR IF YOU LIVE IN A COMMUNITY PROPERTY STATE.

Most 401 plans require that if you are married, your spouse is the primary beneficiary for 100 percent of the account unless your spouse waives this right. If you are married and you do not designate your spouse as your primary beneficiary for 100 percent of the account, your spouse must sign the Spousal Consent portion of this form in the presence of a plan representative or a notary public. Please read the form instructions for additional information.

Spousal Consent to Name a Non-Spousal Primary Beneficiary(ies):

By signing below, I hereby voluntarily consent to the beneficiary designation made by my spouse and waive my designation as sole primary beneficiary. I understand that (1) the effect of this designation is to cause some or all of my spouse's death benefit to be paid to someone other than me; (2) each beneficiary designation is not valid unless I consent to it; and (3) my consent (signature) must be witnessed by either my spouse's plan representative or a notary public. Please note that if you live in a community property state, the spousal consent must be witnessed by a notary public.

EMPLOYEE INFORMATION CHANGE FORM INSTRUCTIONS

For address changes, investment allocation changes, or fund transfers, use Account Access (www.icmarc.org) or call 800-669-7400. If you wish to make a change to your payroll deduction, please use the 457 Deferred Compensation Plan Amount of Deferral Change Form or 401 Plan Contribution Amount Change Form, depending upon your retirement plan type, or see your employer to obtain the appropriate form for your plan.

IMPORTANT BENEFICIARY INFORMATION

Print the name, date of birth, relationship to you, Social Security number, and percentage to be received for each of your beneficiaries. The beneficiary relationship options are spouse, non-spouse, trust, and charity. If this form is not signed, the beneficiary designation will not be valid. If a valid form is not on file at the time of your death, benefits will be paid as outlined in your employer's plan document.

Beneficiary percentages are invalid if your request omits percentages, includes percentages that do not equal 100 percent, or were expressed with fractions (e.g., 33 1/3 percent).

Primary Beneficiary(ies): You may designate one or more people to receive the assets in your account upon your death.

Contingent Beneficiary(ies): If none of your primary beneficiary(ies) are living upon your death, your assets will be distributed to your contingent beneficiary(ies). You may specify one or more people as contingent beneficiary(ies).

More than three beneficiaries – To designate additional beneficiaries, (1) write "see attached sheet" on the primary and/or contingent beneficiary line(s) under "Name" and (2) attach and sign a separate piece of paper with your name, plan number, Social Security number, and additional beneficiary information.

Note: If a Social Security number is not provided for your beneficiary(ies) and ICMA-RC cannot locate the named beneficiary(ies), the account balance will be paid as outlined in your employer's plan document (normally, to your estate).

The IRS has certain rules governing the distribution of funds to beneficiaries. These rules are outlined in your employer's plan document and in ICMA-RC's Participant and Beneficiary Withdrawal Packets.

SPECIAL CERTIFICATION FOR PARTICIPANTS IN COMMUNITY PROPERTY STATES

If you live in a community property state (AZ, CA, ID, LA, NV, NM, TX, WA, or WI), you must generally name your spouse as beneficiary unless your spouse waives this right. The Spousal Consent portion of the form can be used to provide your spouse's consent to the waiver; however, the spousal consent must be witnessed by a notary public. ICMA-RC cannot be responsible for an employee's failure to properly designate a beneficiary in accordance with state law requirements and the employee's failure to provide the certification required by this process. Please be advised that failure to meet state law requirements with respect to your beneficiary designation may result in your beneficiary designation being invalid, and the payment of benefits to someone other than your intended beneficiary(ies).

IMPORTANT INSTRUCTIONS FOR 401 PLANS ONLY

If you are married, most 401 plans require your spouse to be the primary beneficiary for 100 percent of the account unless your spouse waives this right. If you choose to designate a primary beneficiary(ies) other than your spouse, your spouse must consent to this waiver by completing Section 5.

Some 401 plans may allow you to designate any person(s) as primary beneficiary(ies) without spousal consent. If this is the case, community property state requirements still apply if you reside in such a state. If you are unsure which provision applies to you, check with your employer or ICMA-RC's Investor Services at 800-669-7400.

SPOUSAL CONSENT

Your spouse's signature must be witnessed by either your employer's plan representative or a notary public. Please note that if you live in a community property state, the form must be witnessed by a notary public.

This section does not need to be completed if you are single or your spouse is your primary beneficiary who will receive 100 percent of your account balance.
