8. Announcements/Correspondence

9. Business Items

a. Veterans Chamber of Commerce

Background: The Veterans Chamber of Commerce will provide the Commission a presentation about their business and ways that the Commission may be involved.

Recommendation: Receive presentation and discuss ways of involvement.

b. Honoring Milpitas Veterans

Background: In 2020 the Commission discussed a project which would comprise of bricks being laid to honor Milpitas Veterans. An ad hoc committee was formed to research the project. Chair Ramos and Commissioner Choy, and then Chair Ebright were part of that ad hoc committee. At the August 5, 2020 meeting, it was decided that the project will be considered after the Covid-19 pandemic. Chair Ramos will provide an update for the new commissioners on the history of the project.

Recommendation: Propose three to four sites for the project, the cost of the bricks, and how many may initially be sold.

c. Navy Junior Reserve Officers Training Corps (NJROTC) Involvement

Background: The NJROTC program at Milpitas High School has expressed an interest in becoming involved with the Veterans Commission and assisted at the Veterans Day Ceremony. The program has also expressed an interest in receiving support from the Commission. Members of the Commission, may also show their support as individuals to the NJROTC program.

Recommendation: Chair Ramos and Commissioner Monzon will give an update on this item. Discuss ways and events that NJROTC may be involved.

d. Adopt A Vet Program

Background: As per the Veterans Commission workplan, Adopt-A-Vet is a standing item. The concept of the Adopt-A-Vet Program was brought up by past Commissioner Denny Weisgerber and voted on by the Veterans Commission to move forward. The concept of the program was for Veterans to make contact with Milpitas elementary schools and the Veterans would visit classrooms throughout the school year to share stories, read to the classes and bring opportunities for the younger generation to understand what being a veteran is.

Recommendation: Chair Ramos will give an update on this item.
