

DESTINATION: HOME

A Public-Private Partnership Ending Homelessness in Santa Clara County

-
- Develops and funds strategies to prevent and reduce homelessness
 - Researches and incubates innovative solutions and approaches
 - Promotes outcomes-driven housing and service models
 - Convenes and cultivates a diverse set of voices, leaders, and partners

We can't end homelessness

FALSE

Housing is the solution

TRUE

WHAT IS THE CHALLENGE WE FACE?

Homelessness impacts people and neighborhoods throughout Santa Clara County.

Our homeless population is diverse, including veterans, families with children and working adults.

The housing crisis affects us all, but is most severe for people with very low or extremely low income.

WHAT IS THE SOLUTION?

Supportive housing is proven to end homelessness.

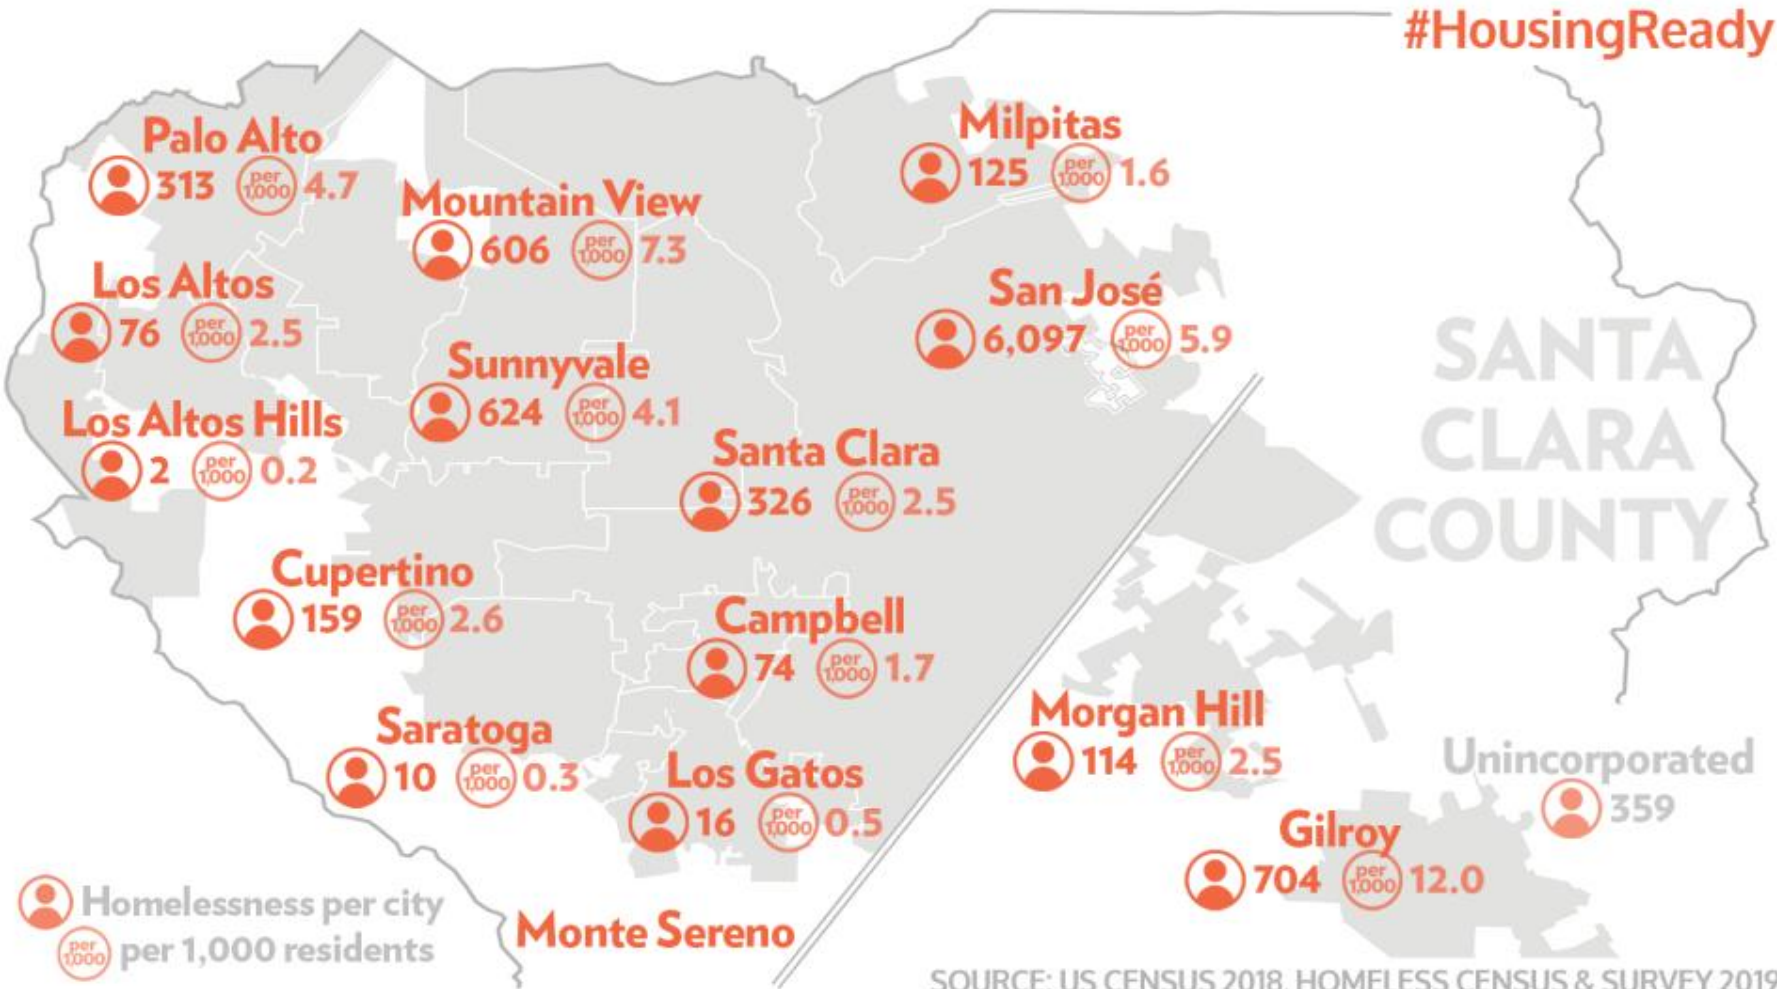

We are making progress with new housing throughout the county.

Managing homelessness is expensive. Ending homelessness is more cost-efficient.

Supportive housing means nice apartment buildings that are neighborhood assets.

Homelessness per city
 per 1,000

Families with children

Veterans

Victim of domestic violence

Santa Clara County residence prior to homelessness

Homeless for the first time

Homelessness caused by job loss, divorce or eviction

County Districts

Cities

CHECK ALL UNCHECK ALL

- Campbell
- Cupertino
- Gilroy
- Los Altos
- Los Altos Hills
- Los Gatos
- Milpitas
- Monte Serano
- Morgan Hill
- Mountain View
- Palo Alto
- San Jose
- Santa Clara
- Saratoga
- Sunnyvale
- San Jose Districts

Funded
 Completed
 Construction
 Pre-construction

